While the dew's still sparkling on the cool moss we start harvesting Green Giant Peas. Out of the crisp green pods we pluck them into their cans. Sweet and fresh as the morning, they come home a closer to how they're picked in the garden. Ever so tender, tender. They're a special secret variety we cultivated by Fine Foods of Canada.

"Spot" of a few old English shrews Nature produced them in an inspired accident—a glorious combination of flavor and size and young tenderness that they never happen again. Only in the Green Giant Cans can you get these marvelous peas that grow to great size while still being young baby sweet. Ask for them at your grocer's.

SUPPOSE DEATH during the past year or so cost millions on trucks and items manufactured in Canada.

More than 11,000 workers who make cars would have been out of jobs.

They would have lost $1,000,000 wages. Suppliers of fuel and electricity would have lost $100,000.

Canada's supply of world cars had no reserves. In addition, in the Province of Quebec, the cars and trucks of Montreal, Sherbrooke, Drummondville, Chaudière Falls and Joliette would have been lost. Suppliers of fuel and electricity would have lost $100,000.

LONGER . . . wider . . . roomier . . . bigger trunks with greatly increased carrying capacity . . . new safety steel "Chrysler" bodies with unexcelled steel roofs . . . new outlying-type, non-absorbing body mountings . . . new low-pressure, double-acting, Auto-Hydraulic Shock Absorbers . . . from bumper to bumper, advancements and refinements . . . Plymouth for 1937 is the biggest value in the history of a car—the biggest for low first cost and reliable, economical operation.

When values are low, you cannot possibly have all this in a car that is the most (low . . . all of them . . . low) in its class. $3,375.00, $3,645.00.

Engineered for Value

Chrysler engineers did two of the big things. First, they built up and protected the lightest, most efficient 1937 automobile ever to enter the lower price field. Second, when they gave to you the greatest of all Chrysler's advantages in safety and carrying capacity, they built up the 1937 Plymouth's second great advantage—extra roominess and roomy interior.

Engineered for Beauty

You can tell you that from the 1937 appearance and carrying capacity. The 1937 Plymouth is a beautiful car, a car that is a pleasure to look at and a car that is a pleasure to drive.

AL COWARD and the National Gallery's "Major productions of Giuseppe Verdi" (1994) and "Richard Wagner" (1995) are the only two operas in the series that have not yet been released on DVD. They were made in a long time span. It's a bit odd that such a historical work as Macbeth was not shown in several theaters until an actor's death. But it's a good thing that the Americanos themselves are finally embracing Verdi's operas, which usually come out on DVD a few days after the Italian ones. It's time to change... to Mobiloil + Arctic

GET SUMMER DRIVING ENJOYMENT ALL WINTER LONG

We're warning the winter oil change deadline. One of three mornings we may find old motor knocking at the door. If your car isn't ready for cold weather starting, you might need a towing truck. Or you might do serious damage to improperly lubricated pistons and cylinder walls.

Your best protection is Mobiloil Arctic, and now is the time to make the change.

Mobiloil Arctic takes the uncertainties out of winter driving. It makes starting quick and positive, provides instant lubrication and protection at low temperatures, holds its body at high engine temperatures.

Because Mobiloil Arctic is made by the famous Glensol process, it's the cleanest oil you can buy. This process makes away the useless, non-lubricating elements... dissolves impurities... soaps water dissolves dirt. With Mobiloil Arctic, your motor is kept clean. Thousands of motorists report as much as 25% greater oil mileage.

Get summer driving enjoyment all winter long. End starting troubles and costly repair bills caused by cold-stiffened oil. Ask your Mobiloil dealer to drain and flush out heavy summer oil and refill with Mobiloil Arctic.

You Can't Throw It Away—

—As You Would An Old Shoe

HOUSES, like shoes or anything else, if you allow them to, eventually wear out. But you can't discard a house as you would an old pair of shoes. A house carries definite responsibilities. It is not just a home; it is an investment. It must be protected and improved.

Every house takes a lot of punishment, one way and another—wind and weather on the outside, gas and wear and tear day in and day out on the inside. Inevitably the time comes when even the finest piece of construction requires repairs.

Or, it may be, the situation calls for remodeling—bringing the old place up to date—turning waste space into modern, livable rooms—replacing old plumbing—introducing insulation or making the roof waterproof.

Many products now in general use started as byproducts of high prices. National oil refiners have increased their consumption and production that they are now available to everyone at moderate prices.

Before making products which are offered to you for acceptance with the specific recommendation of "they are just as good."

Whatever it may be, the choice of materials to be used is of first importance. Before making your choice, study the products brought to your attention through National Advertising in the magazines you read. Such products have achieved nationwide recognition and acceptance. Behind each stands an organization whose business life depends solely upon the quality of its goods. For no manufacturer can build up and maintain a national reputation as shoddy or inferior merchandise.

When you face the necessity for repairs or remodeling consider only Nationally-Advertised goods, and your major problems—the problems of quality and reliability—will be solved before you begin.

Why Sleep?

The human animal is a sleep-walker at the night and day. You know that. But what about the fact that you probably feel no need to sleep at all? That's not true. You're just not aware of it.

That it sometimes does leave just what about it is a whole matter. It's not true that you're just not aware of it. It's not true that you're just not aware of it. It's not true that you're just not aware of it.
